

Calling all Alumni Members

Do you remember the feeling you got at the first conference you attended as a DECA member? The lights, music, and energy pulsating through a crowd of 1,300 other DECA members at the State Conference? The AWESOME experience at the International Conference? The tension in the air as the announcer began to call the names for the event you competed in? Pretty intense, right?

We are inviting you to continue your DECA experience and help current DECA members continue on their DECA journey.

Why should you join Friends of Wisconsin DECA?
